MAKING A DIFFERENCE

EAST COAST BIBLE COLLEGE
"THE EQUESTRIAN"
VOL. XIV — 1989/1990

Making A Difference

People, organizations, businesses, and even religious groups are often born, raised to maturity, and then die without ever making a real difference in the lives of individuals, the community, or the world.

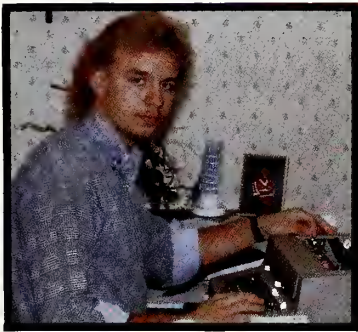

At EAST COAST BIBLE COLLEGE our sole reason for being is to prepare workers and leaders academically and spiritually for ministry to others. Then, like the much talked about "domino effect," their lives will touch others, who will touch others, etc. This is possible only because the college is committed to the emphasis of Biblical content in all of its programs as a means of unifying other fields of learning — general and professional. Every time the name of the college is spoken, the word "Bible" is heard. In essence, the college is making a difference because "Bible" is our middle name.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE is not easy. The average do not succeed. Only those who are committed to a goal and will not be deterred ever see change effected. Although East Coast Bible College is only fourteen years old, it has striven to rise above the overage and to truly make a difference.

The programs of study have been continuously refined to meet the needs of both students and the church; instructors with only the best credentials and professional experience are considered for placement on the faculty; students are continually involved in ministry through organizations, groups or individually; and the institution has sought to be the best by endeavoring to meet the high standards of regional accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, professional accreditation with the American Association of Bible Colleges and the Association of Christian Schools International and experiential recognition through the Evangelical Teacher Training Association.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE? You'd better believe it! To God for all He has done and to all those who have attended East Coast Bible College and are now ministering to others, we dedicate this year's EQUESTRIAN!

Making A Difference Through Friends

Friends are friends regardless of circumstances, times, or difficulties. During a student's stay at East Coast Bible College, many friendships are born and nurtured and out of these friendships, true friends and spouses are often found for a lifetime. Friendships may begin in the registration line during freshman orientation or when a girl catches a "beau" on Sadie Hawkins' Day. They may even begin during a Theology class or in the cafeteria line.

Friendships are the backbone of East Coast Bible College: student with God, student-student, student-professor, professor-professor; professor-God. Without these relationships, the campus would be a dull place to be.

Throughout 1989-90, many opportunities were given for friendships to begin and develop. These next few pages will illustrate this.

President's Banquet

A highlight each year is the President's Banquet. A fundraiser sponsored by the President's Advisory Council, this is a time for dressing-up and "looking good." This year's event took place on December 2, 1989. Guests (non-student, of course) paid $50 per plate for the dinner and in return got to briefly glimpse at a slice-of-life or East Coast. Greeter at the door by a fully-uniformed doorman, Randy Fuller, they entered to be entertained by the Chorale, Ladies and Instrumental ensembles, and Rusty Ayers. The proceeds from this year's Banquet aided in the complete refurbishing of both the women's and men's dorms. The Administration, Faculty, and staff are extremely grateful to the President's Advisory Council for its service to East Coast Bible College. From all the ECBC family, "THANKS!"

Beth Bunn "struts" her stuff. It's hard to be a "hillbilly" when you're from Florida!

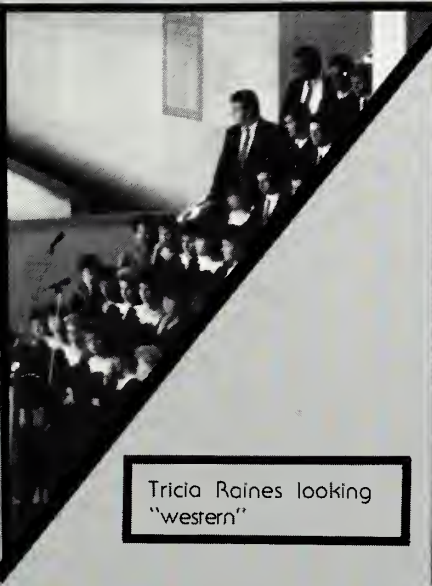

Gib and Edna Stafford enjoy the punch fountain and share a moment together.

Seth Fickett and Mark Stocks show where their talents really lie . . . a little "bluegrass," anyone?

The East Coast Bible College Chorale, directed by David Culberson, spreads Christmas cheer.

Sadie Hawkins Day

On a dark, foreboding day in November 1989, one could hear doors slammin', guys hollaring, and girls laughing. What was happening? Why, it was Sadie Hawkins Day, of course! This is that time each year when the tables are turned, and girls ask the guys out and then chase them 'til they're caught.

This year was no different. At the reception and hayride there was much happiness, some sadness, and a little tolerance; however, it was a great time for friends.

Campus Days

During the year, a new term was coined, A.H. — After Hugo. On September 22, 1989, Hurricane Hugo hit campus with 90+ mph winds and caused a million dollars worth of damage. Consequently, much changed, the combining of Homecoming with Campus Days on February 2-3, 1990, is one example. Things went so smoothly, however, that these two events will probably remain together for a few years.

Things started rolling on Friday evening with musical presentations by students Scott Lows, Liso and Morie Sizemore, Liso Porter, and COVENANT. Also, alumnus Leah Tolley Sustor sang and blessed us with, "You Are There." The Homecoming Court was presented and questioned by Bobby Gilley, before giving a "50's" style musical presentation of their own. This was followed by a great reception for all alumni and guests, presented by the Student Government Association.

On Saturday, approximately 60 prospective students and parents began the day, "Meeting the Administration and Faculty," and then toured the campus. At noon, an alumni luncheon was presented, followed by an East Coast Cavalier and Alumni basketball game. The Cavaliers prevailed in a hard-fought, one-point victory.

The highlight of the day was at 5:30 pm when the Homecoming Bonquet was given for alumni and guests. After a musical presentation by outgoing Queen Renee Fritz Summitt, the Homecoming Court was again presented and Senior Liso Porter was announced as Homecoming Queen 1990. Alumnus Bobby Boyles spoke briefly before the benediction.

Overall, it was a great time of fun and fellowship. Next year, Homecoming/Campus Days will be held during the Fall semester and will feature the 10th Anniversary Reunion of the Class of 1980 — the First Graduating Class of East Coast Bible College.

President Martin and Overseer McGuire greet the guests and alumni.

Homecoming Queen, Lisa Parrer, escorted by Sean Nesbet, is rationally surprised when her name is called and the crown is placed on her head. CONGRATULATIONS, LISA!

Valentine's Day!

AH! VALENTINE'S DAY . . . THAT TIME OF ROSES AND CANDY . . . THAT TIME OF SWEETNESS THAT LASTS FOR A DAY! What a great day — the day of love. Of course, as Christians everyday should be a day of love; however, there's just something special about February 14. It's fun seeing the guys dash to Eckerd's for that card or box of candy only to find them sold-out. Oh the anguish of trying to explain how hard you tried but things have been gone for weeks.

In the otherwise dull month of February, Valentine's Day is an oasis from the doldrums of what is supposed to be winter, snow, etc. At East coast this year, Valentine's Day seemed like springtime; however, no one really cared. It was a day for walking around and enjoying a pleasant time together with that special friend. The day ended with everyone gathering in the gymnasium for a time of fellowship and fun. Pictures, games, men dressed oddly, and balloons all fit together to make a special day.

Greg wishes that Valentine's Day could be everyday . . . He just can't decide which "Beth" to ask out after the party.

GUYS READY FOR THE FIRING SQUAD!

WATER BALLOONS BURSTING IN MID-AIR!

Valentine's Day and freinds go together!

Making A Difference Through Academics

A college is only as good as its programs of study and at East Coast Bible College one can find some of the greatest instruction that can be found anywhere — general, ministerial, or professional. During the 1989-90 school year, this was re-emphasized by the recognition received by the institution from the various accrediting agencies with which it is associated. Also, students actively involved themselves in their studies as evidenced by the large number who made the President's and Dean's Lists, as well as by the large number of ministerial opportunities which were taken.

Books, computers, late-hours, term papers, studying, tests, advisors, library, professors, chapel, clubs, organizations, jobs, and Christian Service assignments are only a few of the terms which describe the area of academics.

Freshman or Senior, the pressure is always the same — do your best remembering it's not always the smartest who succeeds, rather, it's the one who simply "keeps plugging along." The following pages describe the "academic journey" at East Coast. Note the look of excitement on the face of freshmen and the lines of experience showing on the brows of the seniors.

Just taking a break from the books, folks. That's all!

Honest, Mrs. Green, the dog did eat my homework!

It could be called a form of academics ... if only Jason and Jones weren't involved.

Who says you can't study outside?

Just think, Bev, this time last year, it said "Clifton".

Seniors!

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! and all the words of Praise that can come to mind are on the lips of Seniors at East Coast Bible College. For some it has been four years; for others many more. But for all, it has been just long enough: long enough to make friends; long enough to learn much theory and to make practical application; and long enough to know that God has something, really something, planned for each person's life.

May 5, 1990, was a special day for Seniors . . . one of the most important of their lives. Also, it was one of the most important days of the lives of parents and spouses who often faced most of bills.

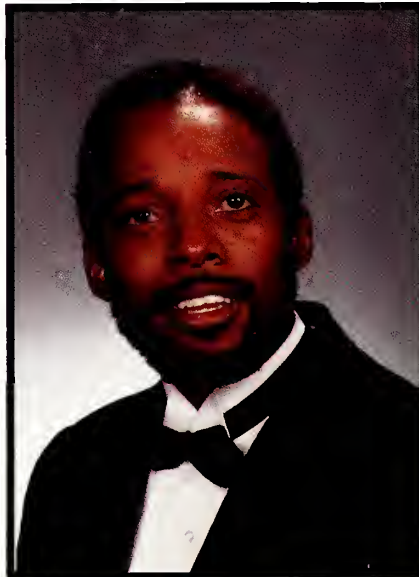

The title Senior gradually changing to Graduate marks a time of true transition in one's perspective. That day which has been longed for finally arrives and "real" life begins with all its uncertainties and decisions. After the final note was played and the last gown returned, in the far distance a new graduate could be heard to say, "Can I start all over, Please?"

Shors!

There is a life for Seniors after classes have finished for the day. Whether it is getting your hair cut, practicing the drums, sitting in the student lounge, or just plain lookin' cool, Seniors are what's happenin' man. Or, as one sa aptly put it, "Seniors are the only thing that's happenin'!"

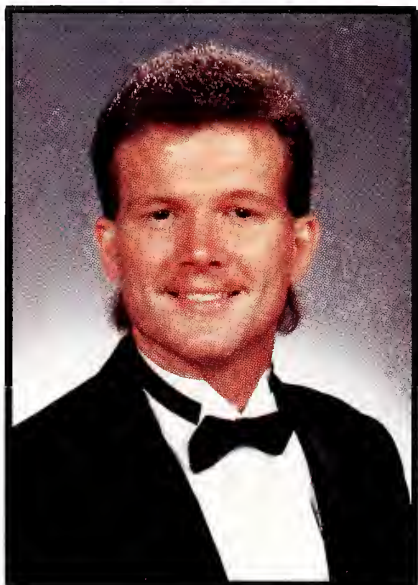

They come to East Coast from Spain, Rondleman, Richmand, Mebane, and all places in-between just to study and prepare for ministry. Now, they depart to return to same of the same places, as well as to many new locations for services.

Studying is a great way of life, however, these pages show the other side — relaxation. Believe me . . . Seniors know how to relax! Freshmen, observe and learn. You'll be there some day.

Juniors

Juniors are only one step away from being at the top . . . Just think, this time next year . . . ! It is with great anticipation that Juniors look ahead; however, this year's Junior class has been one of the most active ever: in student government, in class activities, in organizations.

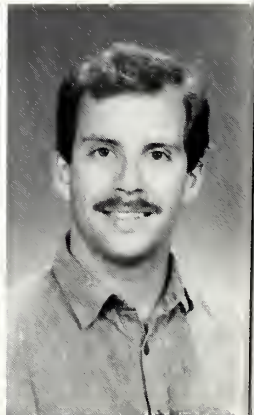

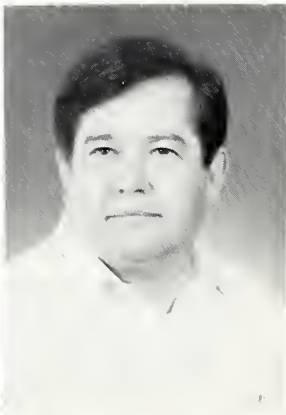

The class was led during 1989-90 by an excellent slate of officers:

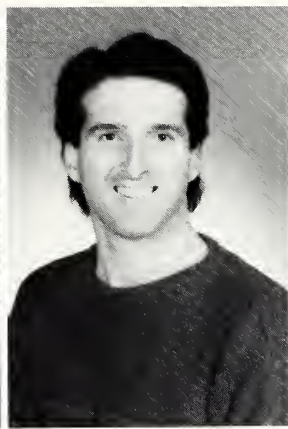

President:	Sam Abee
Vice-President:	Heather Patterson
Secretary/Treasurer:	Terrie Watts

Sophomores

The sophomores finally have someone "to look down on." Hopefully the second year jinx will stay away . . . but who believes in such a thing as a jinx anyway. This year the sophomores were very actively involved in East Coast and added a lot to the overall excitement on-campus. They were led by:

President:	Bob Johnson
Vice-President:	Rochael Mersdorf
Secretary:	Lisa Parker
Treasurer:	Morie Sizemore
Advisor:	Angie Green

The Sophomores are a talented crew. They are full of enthusiasm, energy and a desire to do God's will. The candidates on this page of Lisa Parker, Mark Stacks, and Beth Clintran represent a class that is full of potential for God. Whether it be as a musician, Children's Minister, or layperson, much can be done if only the people are willing. This year's sophomore class is willing and will see much accomplished!

Freshmen

WHAT A DROP . . . One year you're a Senior and then the next, you start all over again as a freshman. Oh well, it's just important to make it to that Senior level again, only this time in college.

Never mind that only 15% of all freshmen in the USA who entered this year will graduate in the recommended four years, or that overall only 25%-40% will ever graduate at all. It's important that while you're at ECBC, you make the best of things — study hard, play hard, pray hard and then hope for the best.

Freshmen, so naive yet so much is expected of them . . . theirs is the largest class; they have the greatest excitement; they want to do well. This year's Freshmen Class is special. It is the first to enter ECBC as a regionally accredited institution. Hopefully, as they grow, so will the institution. AMEN!

Making A Difference Through Clubs And Organizations

Student Government Association

The SGA is an organization whose work often goes unnoticed. It consists of students who coordinate parties, bonquets, sports and other social activities. This year the SGA was involved with the Christmas party, Homecoming, and Teacher Appreciation Week. By working with both students and faculty, the SGA keeps school spirit alive and builds new and better ideas for the future.

Pioneers For Christ

The Pioneers for Christ is a student club which is concerned with the evangelistic needs in churches throughout North Carolina as well as its surrounding states. Periodically, teams from the PFC invade communities with times of visitation and revival. Groups of students frequently leave on Friday afternoons to arrive in time for a Friday night revival service. The students conduct services on Friday night, Saturday night, Sunday morning, and Sunday night. The main focus of the invasion is the Saturday afternoon witnessing efforts. Students cover the neighborhoods to give the gospel of Jesus Christ to the lost.

During the 1989-90 school year, students conducted invasions in Gray Court, South Carolina and at the Ranch Road Church of God, Charlotte, North Carolina. Many students choose to join the invasion groups for the opportunity to exercise their calling. Students are given opportunities to preach, teach, sing, and most importantly, evangelize.

Missions Club

The Missions Club is a small organization with a big mission. This organization centers its activities around raising the student body's awareness of missions as well as raising funds for various mission projects. This year the Missions Club welcomed Gerald Hallaway from the Philippines to campus and joined him for lunch. The 1989-90 officers are: President — Jaythi Reddi; Vice President — Ralph Barnes; and Secretary/Treasurer — Mark Gaw.

Ministerial Club

Those who aspire to become preachers are usually one of a kind. They stand out in a crowd, seen by the casual observer to have a suit and at all times, a certain type of hair style and a special way of speaking. Can you spot the preacher in the picture? Left to right are: Jaythi Reddi, James Schmidlin, Mark Gaw, Wade Faster, Lay Sweezy, and Lloyd Francis.

Delta Zeta Phi

Promoting social graces, school spirit, and Christian service are the goals of DELTA ZETA PHI, the campus sorority. The accomplishment of these goals will bring our what all desire but seldom have in its fullest — unity. This year's members are left to right: Michelle Ikenraad, Heather Patterson, Teresa Thibadeau, Lisa Porter, Beth Clinton, Beth Bunn, Bannie Stanifer, advisor, Beverly Hatfield, Robin Ethridge, Whitney Halt, Danna Kiser, Pamela Day, Lisa Sizemore, Marie Sizemore, Rebecca Squires, Pam Raines, Crystal Seaman, and Lisa Parker.

The Bride's Circle is a club designed for the wives of students. They learn, worship and have fun together. The meetings are a time of fellowship and worship for just ladies, to escape from the "hustle and bustle" of everyday life and have some time for themselves.

The 1989-90 year was a very busy time for the Brides Circle. They attended a wonderful ladies seminar at the Cramerton Church of God; went shopping at Cannon Village; had a wonderful Christmas and Valentines Party which included the husbands; had Sister Leonhardt as guest speaker and had a craft meeting where all made decorative hats. Everyone enjoyed the many things which were done and the fellowship they had. God bless our ladies!

The Coastline

The Coastline went through many changes with new and exciting things happening this year. During the Fall semester, co-editors Mark Johnson and Kenny Smith, under the supervision of Angie Green took the Coastline to new heights.

During the Spring semester, the staff was managed by new co-editors, Michele Icenraad and Dawn Miller. Through the good times and the bad, the Coastline was there to inform and support the student body with articles covering everything from devotions to fun and leisure.

Remember . . . IT'S ALL ABOUT YOUR MAKING A DIFFERENCE AT EAST COAST!!

The Equestrian

The saying, "All good things come to them who wait," holds true with this year's Equestrian. For the second year in a row we are having had a summer delivery yearbook. By doing this we are able to include activities from Fall opening through Spring graduation; thus, providing you with a more complete and memorable record of this year's events.

With the help and patience of our advisor, Dr. Oxendine, and our Jostens' representatives, Bill and Rose Mary Hall, we were able to work around deadlines, confused staff-members, and an overworked editor. From the beginning of the fall semester to the ending days of the spring, we were able to capture many of your smiling faces. It is our prayer that you'll like what you see.

Ladies Ensemble

The Ladies Ensemble is an on-campus group with talent to lift the spirits of all. Although they are a small group of ladies under the leadership of Eddie Wilson, with their three and four part harmony they have warmed the hearts of all who listen.

During the 1989-90 year, the Ladies Ensemble performed during both the fall and spring convocations as well as at the annual Christmas banquet.

Keep up the hard work ladies, remembering that what you do is MAKING A DIFFERENCE AT EAST COAST BIBLE COLLEGE!

The East Coast Chorale

The East Coast Bible College Chorale has as its reason for being, MINISTRY. This may mean traveling to churches in North Carolina or taking extended tours which include Michigan, Kentucky, or Florida. During the 1989-90 year, the Chorale ministered in all these places in addition to appearances on-campus at special functions.

A highlight of first semester was an invitation to appear on HERITAGE TODAY, the television ministry of Heritage Ministries which appears daily on the Inspirational (PTL) Network.

Under the direction of David Culberson, the Chorale, this year completed its 14th year of active ministry to the church. As the college continues to grow it is a surety that the Chorale will be instrumental to that growth. ECBC CHORALE — WE LOVE YOU!

Row 1: Director David Culberson, Sandi Bean, Tricia Raines, Teresa Thibodeau, Donna Kiser, Renee Tuner, Beth Clinton, Opel Carson, Catherine Sloop. Instrumental Ensemble

This year's Instrumental Ensemble was a blessing to all at ECBC. By providing worshipful music at the chapel services and entertainment at such functions as the President's banquet, the group was able to reach many persons. From musical drama to cantata, the Instrumental Ensemble is able to blend great talent with great music and produce a great sound. KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK, GUYS!

East Coast Chorale Band

The Chorale Band is a group of very talented people, who come together for the purpose of "Jammin' for Jesus." The band consists of section leader Renee Turner, often known as "Nancy," playing the "victory" organ and keyboard; playing the piano, "Magic Fingers," himself, Mark Stocks; Tom "Drummerboy" Wallace on the drums; John "Thumper" Cloer on the bass guitar; and last, but definitely not least, "Diamond" Dave Hardee playing lead guitar.

The band works hard together during the year to mold and develop the best sound possible. Sectionals are held each week in order for the band members to learn all they can within a small amount of time. The band has found that it's not always easy to come together in music; but, through their times of hard work, and through their times of fun, the band has learned to develop their individual personalities and talents into beautiful music. They simply call it, "Jammin' for Jesus."

Chapel At ECBC

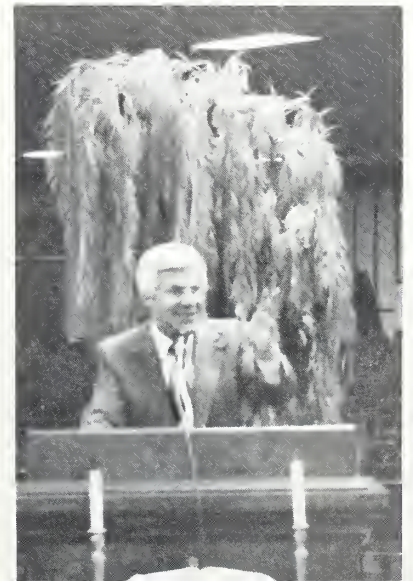

Chapel is a vital part of student life at ECBC that allows for a time of refreshing and a break from the daily grind that can wear on a person in school. On each Tuesday and Thursday throughout the year, we were blessed by many different ministers and ministries.

Because of extensive damage done by Hurricane Hugo, for most of the year Chapel was conducted in the choir area of the main auditorium while the "regular" chapel was being used as Library. Often it was difficult because of the 3,000 "empty" chairs which served as a backdrop for the ministers. Overall, though, this was overcome and worship was fruitful.

Tuesday and Thursday, 11:00-12:00 — that special time called "Chapel."

Making A Difference Through Seminars, Conferences And Conventions . . .

Throughout the school year, the students and faculty of East Coast Bible College participate in numerous seminars, conferences, and conventions. During 1989-90, there was a PROPHECY CONFERENCE, a NATIONAL PRISON CONFERENCE, a CHURCH-GROWTH SEMINAR, and a MID-ATLANTIC SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION (MASSA) CONVENTION. Because of such meetings and conferences, the ECBC student is able to gain hands-on experience in many areas of ministry.

Covenant

"Grandpa and Grandma of Covenant"

Through the direction and inspiration of the Holy Spirit, COVENANT has been able to minister in the Church of God since 1979 and has accomplished much:

- Is currently the oldest continuing college ensemble group in the Church of God
- Has ministered in more Youth Camps and Teen Retreats than any other ministering ensemble
- Has ministered at the last three General Assemblies
- Has ministered as a part of MINISTRY TO THE MILITARY since 1983 in 90% of the Christian Servicemens Centers in countries outside the United States
- Has recorded nine albums — seven of which are still being distributed
- Received the Vision Foundation/Forward in Faith Golden Mike Award during the 1988 General Assembly of the Church of God for ALIVE WITH JOY which was named the "Best Album — Contemporary Gospel."

Below: Appearing on "Heritage Today" telecast during a special series of programs was one of the highlights of the year.

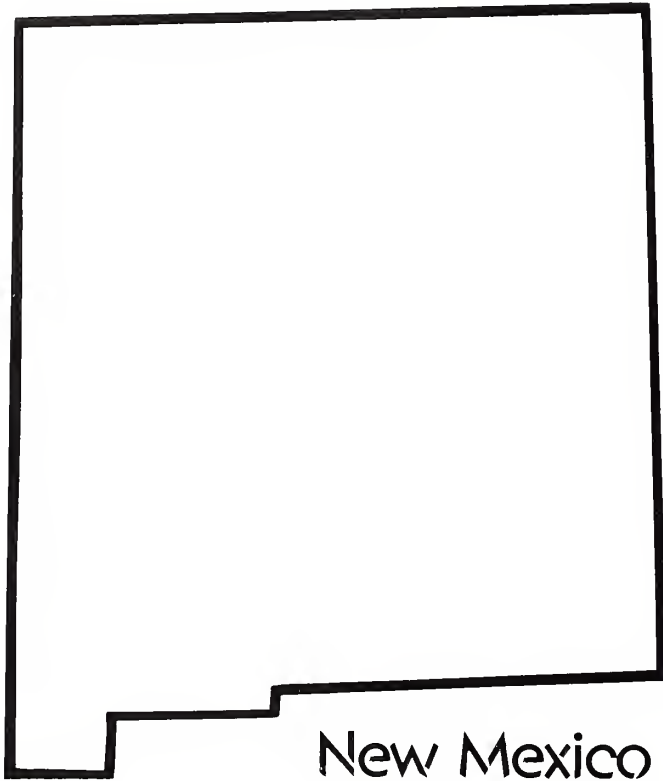

Singing or Homecoming is always a special time when former COVENANT members can get together and "remember."

Above: Ministering in the local church is the group's primary place of ministry. Counting the tape sales . . .

Making A Difference Through Ministry In New Mexico . . .

HOMESICK!

Teresa Thibadeau, Robbie Laws, and Angela Radden spent the Summer of '89 ministering in the state of New Mexico. While living in an old trailer and making-do without the basic necessities, they still had a wonderful time ministering on the Navajo Reservation to adults and children in need of God.

From outdoor games to Kids Crusades, the work was unending. A seed was planted in the hearts of these students which will be nurtured and grown in the years to come . . . There will never be another summer just like the one in '89 . . .

It's a long way to North Carolina, Michigan, and Pennsylvania!

Teresa shows them how to "spike one," ECBC style

Making A Difference Through: Summer Ministry In Montana

Ministry sometimes means eating peanut butter. Huh, Kenny?

Gary Bunn, Opie Swails, and Kenny Smith minister in Montana during the summer of 1989 and enjoy some fringe benefits from God's creation.

The Church of God as a denomination has congregations throughout the United States and the world; however, its heaviest concentration is found in the Southeastern section of the states. Outside this area, there are many communities in many states which do not have a Church of God congregation or, when they do, it is a small congregation. It is in these areas that East Coast Bible College is sending summer ministry teams.

The team of Gary Bunn, Kenny Smith and Opie Swails had a very successful ministry during 1989; so much so, that twelve prospective students from Montana visited the campus during October and several are planning to attend East Coast beginning Fall 1990. Also, because of their success, eight ECBC students spent the summer of '90 also in Montana ministering.

The annual staff asked for pictures of ministry, and this is what we got . . . Same ministry. Huh? Let's hope that there were times for preaching, singing, etc. I guess the old saying, "All work and no play" is applicable here.

Making A Difference Through Ministry In India

Jyothi Reddi and Fronkie Walters spent the summer of '89 in Jyothi's home country of India. Even though their flights were "messed-up" and they traveled separately to India, during their ministry, many souls were won and much was accomplished. Jyothi's dad is also a minister and is pictured with Jyothi and Fronkie prior to ministry . . .

Making A Difference Through Sports

The importance of Sports as a part of the Bible College curriculum cannot be overestimated. While it is quite natural to see Bible college students studying the WORD, it should be equally natural to see the same students participating in sports.

LUKE 2:52 states that "Jesus increased in . . . stature" (the physical part of life). With Him as the example, can His followers do less? It is, thus, important that the physical part of one's life be taken care of properly.

Whether it be in PE classes, intramurals, intercollegiate sports, or individual activities, it is important for students to be able to participate in some type of athletic program. At ECBC, ample opportunity is given for each student to work on this particular area of life — PARTICIPATE, THEY DO!

Basketball is back and far-real at East Coast. After a three-year lull in full-time sports at the college, a dedicated team took to the court for the 1989-90 year. Under the direction of Rusty Ayers, Coach, the team saw the year as one of great challenge.

After a vigorous time of getting into shape and days when the players wondered if they would make it, the reward of gaining their first victory against Southeastern Bible College made all the sweat and tears worthwhile.

The return of basketball to East Coast brought much excitement to the campus. If you believe that there is nothing quite like basketball, it was difficult not to "love" this year's CAVALIERS.

As a unit, the team was drawn closer together through practices, games, and tournaments; however, the greatest area of strength was that seen in the Christian love that developed and grew between members of the team. It's difficult to wait for the '91 edition of the CAVALIERS, but it will be worth the waiting!

Ladies Volleyball

Believing that everyone should be able to participate in athletic competition on the college level, East Coast Bible College offers a program of intercollegiate volleyball for women. This year's team had an exciting year. The girls worked very hard and played their best under the coaching of Rusty Ayers.

March 31, 1990 was a special time of celebration for the Seniors of East Coast Bible College. This was the date for the 1st Annual Senior Banquet. In the past, picnics and luncheons had been served, but this year the Seniors decided to do something different.

The Banquet Room at the Eastway Church of God was the setting for an evening of food, fun and fellowship. It was a time to be long remembered. Join us for just a brief look at a special time . . .

Making A Difference Awards Night '90

Giving "honor to whom hanar is due" is a very special time at East Coast Bible College. Tradionally, the evening before Graduation is designated as the time when awards and honors are bestawed upan the prospective graduates. It is a time when the faculty recognizes the efforts put forth by the students as well as a time when selected students relate special times at East Coast.

Awards Night '90 was no different. As Patty Seals played the Pracessional, the graduates marched in with anticipation. This year the program was conducted in the main lobby of the Administration Building and everyone was eager to see just how every thing would go.

Following prayer by Fran Lowden and a hymn conducted by David Culberson, Joyce Miles read Scripture and Dr. Martin greeted the graduates and families. The East Coast Charale then sang several selections before the awards were presented.

Following the award presentations, graduates Janet Perez, Tricia Raines, Harry Clark, and Neal Durham spoke briefly about some of their favorite times at East Coast. Their expressions of gratitude to God uplifted everyone in attendance. In all, it was a night to remember . . . by graduates, families and friends.

Honor Graduates '90

As the graduates marched forward on Graduation Day to receive their degrees, several of them wore Gold Ribbons and Medallions around their necks. This signifies that these students have excelled in their studies and have been declared as HONOR STUDENTS.

Accordingly, East Coast Bible College provides graduation with distinction for students who achieve excellent cumulative averages. Honors are awarded as follows: Summa Cum Laude, 3.7 average; Magna Cum Laude, 3.5 average; and Cum Laude, 3.1 average. The Administration and Faculty congratulate these students on their excellence and wish for them only the best that life in God's will can offer.

Graduation '90

Graduation is always one of the most exciting times of the year. After all the hard work, hours of study, zillions of term papers, times of prayer, conferences with Bob Gilley about Christian Service, Vaarhis rests, and Bell jokes, one has thoughts that this day will never come, but THEN IT DOES!

When it arrives, it becomes one of those special days that remains on the forefront of memories. It is a special day not only for graduates, but also for moms and dads, husbands and wives, and even children who are about to get their parents back.

GRADUATION '90, May 5, 10:30 am. was special indeed. For the first time in the college's history, the graduation ceremonies were conducted in the Lobby. As the Instrumental Ensemble began the PROCESSIONAL, the doors on either side of the balcony opened and President Martin led the Board, faculty, and graduates down the winding ramps onto the main floor. All the colors of the academic regalia of both faculty and students were very impressive.

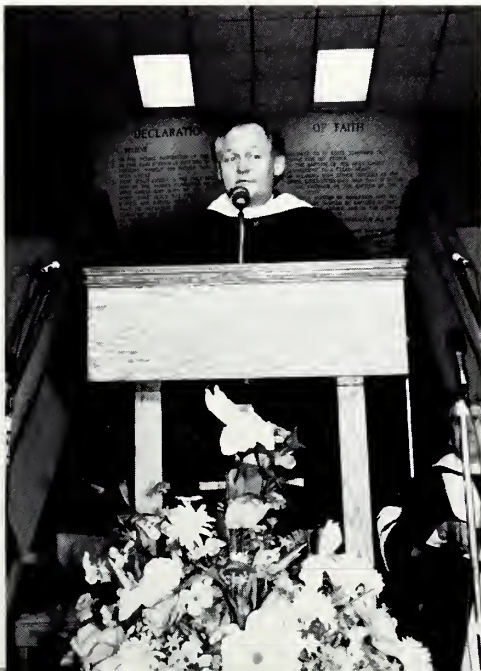

Board member Glen Moore prayed the invocation, and Eddy Wilson led the congregation in the hymn, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty." Dr. Kenneth Bell then read Scripture before the East Coast Chorale sang two selections: "People Need the Lord," and "He's Been Faithful."

Following the selections by the Chorale, President Ronald Martin presented the speaker for the Commencement Address. Dr. R. Lamar Vest, Assistant General Overseer for the Church of God. Dr. Vest delivered a stirring message to the graduates and challenged them to future, meaningful ministry.

The Chorale sang another selection, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness," prior to Dr. Sammy Oxendine's presentation of the Class of 1990. After the Benediction by Overseer Dennis McGuire, the graduates left the Lobby for one last time and entered into God's calling for the rest of their lives. CONGRATULATIONS. SENIORS!

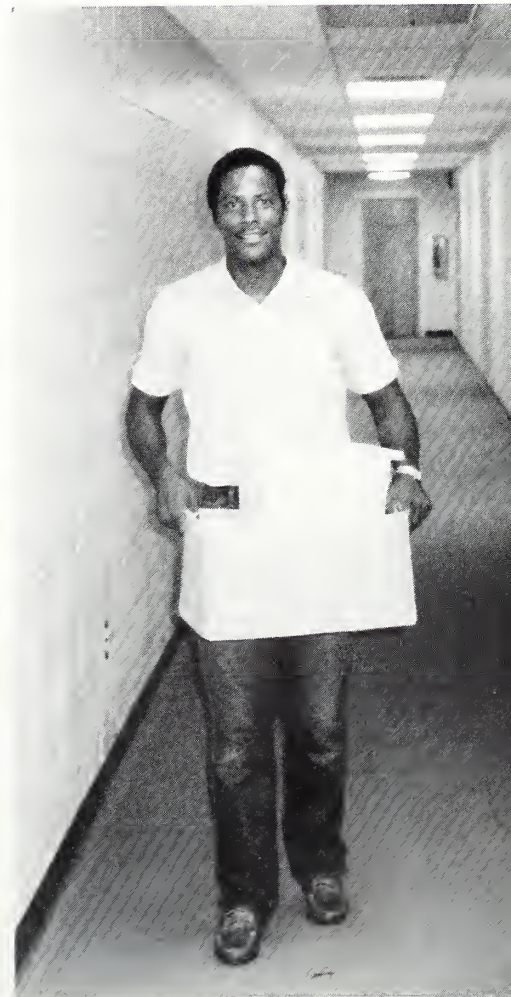

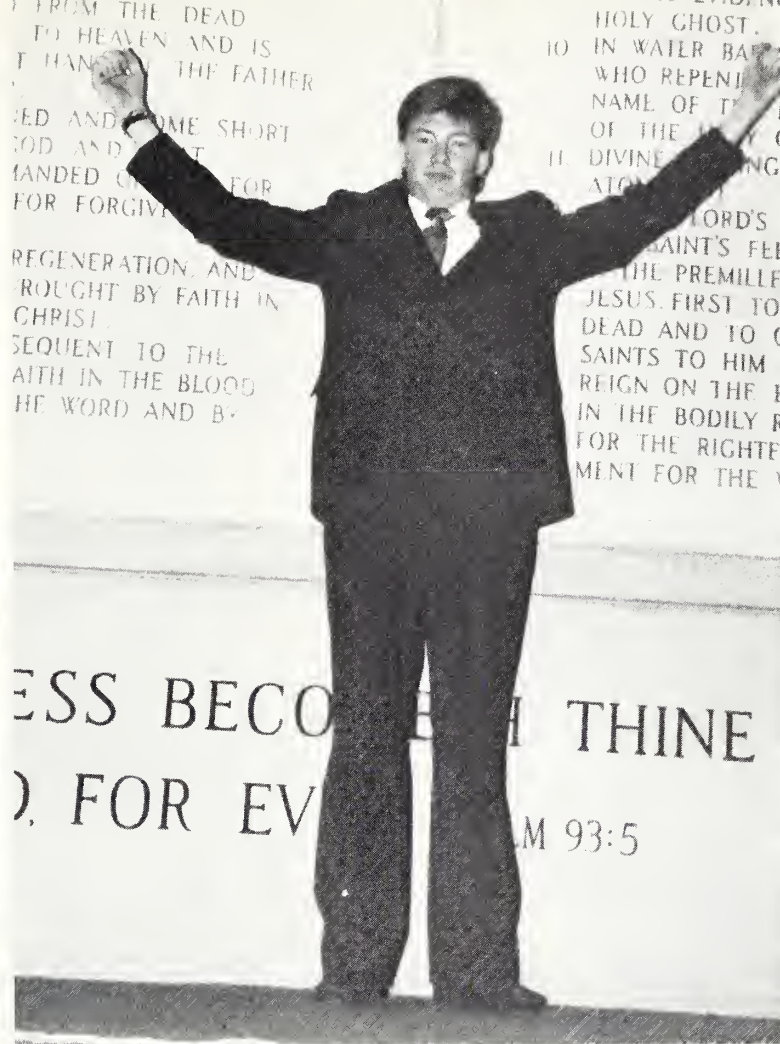

Glimpses Of 1989-90

One could never have imagined how 1989-90 would be. It began with President Martin being hospitalized and proceeded through Hurricane Hugo, however, as the year continued, things "looked-up." What could have been devastating, turned into a blessing as all the campus buildings were almost totally renewed.

Good things happened: great convocations and chapel services; well-planned campus events: some even fell in and out of "love" several times. Overall it was a great year.

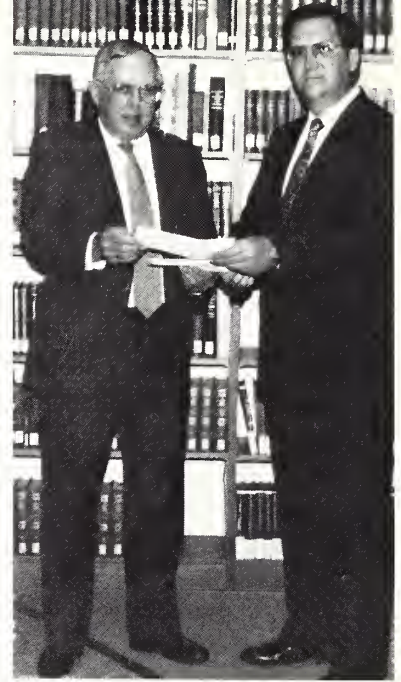

We, the EQUESTRIAN staff, dedicate these next few pages of candid to you, the "family" of East Coast. Whether administration, faculty, student, or staff, we're all in this thing together . . . this thing called education, this thing of finding God's will for our lives . . . We are leaving out the captions so that you can interpret the pictures for yourselves. ENJOY!

Aside from the sustaining grace of God provided through Jesus Christ, there is no asset available to the Church more valuable or vital than its young people. A venerable bishop once observed, "a denomination is only one generation away from extinction." By those words he meant to emphasize that unless the young people of the Church are prepared spiritually and academically to be the Church of their generation, the Church will cease to be.

The Church of God, therefore, looks to its young people with great hope and anticipation. We expect you, under God, to become an even more productive Church than the generation which preceded you. We salute you for your pursuit of an education in an institution which gives equal attention to the nurture of mind, soul and spirit.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF '90

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Proverbs 3:5-6 (NAS)

Psalm 15

Lord, who may dwell in your sanctuary?
Who may live on your holy hill?
He whose walk is blameless and who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth from his heart and has no slander on his tongue, who does his neighbor no wrong and casts no slur on his fellowman who despises a vile man but honors those who fear the Lord, who keeps his oath
even when it hurts,
who lends his money without usury
and does not accept a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.
